BRUTAL MURDER ENACTED AT FLORAL

When Dr. Frymire Shoots and Stabs Henry W. Schaefer, a Prominent Farmer. Trouble Results From an Old Grudge.

MURDERER IS WOUNDED.

Henry W. Schaefer, a prominent farmer of Floral, eight miles south of Hawesville, was shot to death in the Floral schoolhouse Monday morning at 11 o'clock by Dr. R. W. Frymire. He was shot through the head, in the breast and in the side and was then given several deep stabs with a long bladed knife, which was found by his side.

The evidence showed that there had been an old grudge between the men for the past six years. When his wife died six years ago there were circumstances connected with the death that caused the Masonic lodge, of which Dr. Frymire was a member, to investigate. Three years later he was expelled from the lodge. Schaefer was the master and active in his expulsion. T. V. T. Baker was the chief prosecutor.

Just after the shooting Frymire was seen to come out of the schoolhouse, cast the cartridges out of his pistol and reload. He went to the home of Van Baker and asked for him, but was misdirected by Mrs. Baker. He then started to the home of T. V. T. Baker, but turned and went away in the direction of his home.

Frymire was arrested three miles from his home, and while resisting arrest was shot in the stomach. The wound was not serious. There were serious fears of a mob and the prisoner was taken to the Owensboro jail for safe keeping.

Schaefer was a well known farmer, forty years of age and leaves a wife and seven children.

Miss Pate Entertains.

Miss Mary Pate made a charming young hostess to a party, which she gave Friday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pate. The guests included the young ladies of the Friendship Circle. Dancing and music formed the diversions of the evening for the guests and at 11 o'clock refreshments were served. A general color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the decoration of the house and the refreshment table was especially pretty with vases of pink and white flowers. Miss Pate's party was pronounced a great success.

P. M. BASHAM CIRCUIT CLERK

Of Breckenridge County, Passes Bar Examination at Hawesville—One of Youngest Public Officials in State.

Hawesville Special. P. M. Basham, clerk of the Breckenridge Circuit Court, passed a very excellent bar examination at this place last Wednesday. Mr. Basham is a young man of strong ability, and his pleasing personality together with his efficiency as a law student, impressed the examiners as one of the best prospects for a lawyer that has ever been examined before the local bar. He is one of the youngest public officials in the State of Kentucky, having been elected to the office of Clerk of the Breckenridge Circuit Court at the November election 1915, and has many friends who are very proud of his success. Mr. Basham was reared near Stephensport, Breckenridge county, and is a brother of Attorney Jas. T. Basham, of the Breckenridge county bar. His friends at this place, as well as his many friends in his home county, are very anxious to see him continue his legal study, as he is a young man that will add strength to the legal profession.

BEST IN STATE

Is What Assistant Inspector Corley Says of County Clerk C. V. Robertson's Office.

I have this day checked the office of C. V. Robertson, County Clerk of Breckenridge county, from January 3, 1914, to June 1, 1916, and find his office in fine shape, being one of the best kept County Clerk's offices in the State. F. G. CORLEY, Assistant Inspector.

Stock Market.

Cattle receipts at the Louisville yards Monday numbered 2,136 head. Choice handy weight butchers were in demand, but at prices 10 to 15c off, with the medium and common kinds 15 to 25c lower. Best bulls were in demand, but common were lower. There were very few prime heavy steers on hand, although one sale of a single steer weighing 985, was recorded at $10. The best load of the day averaged 1,274 pounds and brought $9.25 per 100, with others at $8 and $8.50.

Best corn fed hogs, 200 pounds and up, brought $9.65; 165 to 200 pounds, $9.45; 120 to 165 pounds, $9.35; pigs, $7.95 to $8.70; roughs, $8.65 down.

Source of Diamonds.

Patience—It is said that diamonds have been discovered in fallen meteors. Patience—But a fallen meteor is cold, and I'm looking for a diamond from a warmer proposition than a fallen meteor.—Yonkers Statesman.

Free Tickets For Children.

As has previously been stated in the columns of our county papers, we now have in our office a sufficient number of Fair tickets to supply all the school children in the county, both white and colored. These tickets will be given free to all children of school age in the county, and are good for the first day only. These tickets will be given out at the fair grounds gate, the same as other fair tickets, on the first day of the fair. However, teachers or pupils desiring their tickets before that day, may have same by calling at my office or by writing me telling me the number desired and sending postage sufficient to mail same. Remember the first day is School Day, and all teachers wishing to come will be given that day. The tickets are free to school people and we want five thousand school children here on that day. Call for your free ticket. J. W. Trent, Supt.
